This is the conference that you have heard so many parents talking about! This is the one that you will not want to miss!! Come prepared for a day filled with.....lots of information and inspiration..... presented by one of the nation's leading special education attorneys Peter Wright, and his wife Pamela Darr Wright. Pete has practiced special education law since the 1970's. Pam is a psychotherapist with more than 30 years of experience which give her a unique perspective on parent-child-school dynamics, problems and solutions.

Your registration fee will include a continental breakfast, a seated luncheon, and two books written by Pete and Pam Wright ~ Wrightslaw: From Emotions to Advocacy, 2nd Edition and Wrightslaw: IDEA 2004. We have acquired a limited number of hotel rooms at a discounted rate for those of you wishing to purchase overnight accommodations.
